Director

Coach Jeroud Clark

As Coach Clark finished his 14th year coaching High School basketball, his a passion for teaching the game of basketball and his belief that fundamentals are the baseline for success at any level has not changed. He has coached over 20 players that have gone on to play DI, DII and DIII basketball. Coach Clark got his start in coaching at Fallston High School, and made a stop at the local private school, John Carroll. His camp models that of his legendary high school coach Pete White, who owns/operates one of the best High School Camps in the state of Pennsylvania and is in the PA Coaches Hall of Fame. Coach Clark is dedicated to making his camp one were campers will have the most fun, get the best fundamental teaching and all for the best price in the area.

Staff

Our staff will consist of high school basketball coaches with a wealth of knowledge and experience to ensure that all campers receive proper instruction, supervision and individual attention. We will also have current and former college players, along with current high school players from the area.
